

Juliana Zimmerman Southwick

1850-1950 Lehi Centennial Biography

Juliana Zimmerman Southwick, daughter of John and Harriet Lamb Zimmerman was born September 24, 1865, in Lehi. Her early life was one of pioneer happiness goo parents, ten brothers and sisters, a plentiful home and Church association, which gave her a background for a full, helpful life. She was active in Church work, as well as socially, and belonged to many young folks' organizations.

She was a Relief Society teacher, and served in the Fifth Ward Relief Society Presidency from March 7, 1920 until 1926, when she moved to Magna with her husband.

Besides her Relief Society work are the unsung unrecorded vigils by day and night with the sick and afflicted, and her help to the poor and needy. She was a friend to everyone. Young folks loved her for her understanding; old folks loved her for her sympathy and kindness. She did not engage in public affairs except as a devoted enthusiastic Democrat during election campaigns. Her work, even for her Church, was done "behind the lines" in the home, in the kitchen, always inconspicuous seeking no acclaim.

She died March 9, 1940, at Magna, and was buried in the Lehi cemetery.

George Franklin Southwick and Juliana Zimmerman were married in the Logan Temple, October 12, 1886. To them were born eleven children, eight of whom are living at this writing. They are Zaley May (Mrs. A. J. Spratley), George Merlin, Eleazer, Lexie (Mrs. Emeral Hansen), Arel, Laurene (Mrs. F. R. Goates), Cleone (Mrs. N. H. Weggeland), and LaVon.
